

ECHE Monitoring Guide 2016 Evaluation Grid

3. Grading systems, credit transfer and grade conversion	Strong	Fair	Weak
a) Full and accurate information on the grading system used by institutions/faculties
b) Full and accurate information on the grade distribution within the institution (degree programmes or disciplinary areas) is available in the form of tables) (if applicable in the country)
c) Full and accurate information on procedures of credit transfer and grade conversion to the student

Criteria for the choice
Strong	a) Full information is provided on the website and in the course catalogue (see ECTS users' guide requirements http://ec.europa.eu/education/resources/european-credit-transfer-accumulation-system_en); b) The ECTS Grade Distribution Tables or another widely used system are used. c) 80-100% of the students are satisfied with the information provided on the procedures
Fair	a) Partial information on the grading system is available; b) Other grade distribution tables are being used c) 50-80 % of the students are satisfied with the information provided on the procedures
Weak	a) No information is provided; b) No grade distribution table is used c) below 50 % of the students are satisfied with the information provided on the procedures http://ec.europa.eu/education/resources/european-credit-transfer-accumulation-system_en